GENEALOGICAL RESEARCH IN ENGLAND

Communicated by the Committee on English Research

JENKIN

Contributed by EBEN PUTNAM of Wellesley Farms, Mass.

THE records published in this contribution show the English ancestry and connections of Martha Jenkin, wife of William Eaton, who came to New England in 1637 and, after living for several years at Watertown, Mass., removed to Reading, Mass., where he died in 1673.

There were several Jenkin or Jenken families in co. Kent, England, and the probate and parish records of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries referring to persons of this name in that county are numerous. The records selected for publication here relate chiefly to Henry Jenkin of Coldred, co. Kent, the grandfather of Martha (Jenkin) Eaton, and his descendants, although a few early wills and sundry parish records of persons whose relationship to the Henry Jenkin family has not yet been proved are given, in the hope that they may be helpful to subsequent investigators who may attempt to carry the ancestral line farther back than has been done in this article. Abstracts of many wills of the Jenkin families of Hawkhurst and Folkestone, co. Kent, and of other wills of the Coldred family are in the possession of the contributor, but, as they throw no light on the ancestry of Martha (Jenkin) Eaton, they are not printed here. A brief genealogy, tracing the descendants of Henry Jenkin down to the latter part of the seventeenth century, follows the records.

FROM PROBATE RECORDS

The Will of JOAN JENKYN, wife of William Jenkyn of Hith [co. Kent], proposing to visit the shrine of St. James in Galicia and other holy places, dated 14 May 1490. To be buried in the churchyard of the chapel of St. Leonard, Hith, or wheresoever it pleaseth God. A messuage in the "Middilward" in Heth is to be sold, and the proceeds are to go to a certain chaplain — 5 marks for celebrating in said chapel for one half year for my soul and my parents' souls, 20s. for my obit, 26s. 8d. for my trental, and 26s. 8d. for my anniversary. To Avice Att Stone, daughter of John at Stone of Saltwood, for her marriage, 40s. To John At Combe of Saltwood 6s. 8d. Residue to William Jenkyn, my husband, whom I appoint my executor. Proved 3 November 1490 by the executor. (Consistory of Canterbury, vol. 3, fo. 266.)

A pedigree of the Jenkin family of Coldred, co. Kent, branches of which are found, in the seventeenth century, in several parishes of the Isle of Thanet, is printed in Berry's "Pedigrees of the Families in the County of Kent," published in London in 1830, pages 484-485, immediately following a pedigree of the Jenkin family of Folkestone, which is given on pages 482-483 of the same work. To Jenkin of Folkestone, the most prominent family of the name in Kent, Berry ascribes the following arms: Argent, a lion rampant regardant sable; and the same coat of arms is given in the pedigree of this family in The Visitation of Kent, 1619.* To the branch of the Coldred family seated at Minster in Thanet, which was descended from Thomas Jenkin (vide infra, page 74, 6, i), Berry gives the following crest: A lion sejant argent, resting his dexter paw on a torteaux. From time to time intermarriages took place between members of the Folkestone and Coldred families, and it is probable that the two families were descended from a common ancestor, although investigations made by the contributor of this article and by the Chairman of the Committee on English Research in the course of his recent stay in England were not carried far enough to prove the correctness of this conjecture. From the records given above the following genealogy of the Coldred family has been compiled, establishing the place of Martha (Jenkin) Eaton among the descendants of Henry Jenkin of Coldred and making sundry corrections and a number of additions to Berry's pedigree. A few statements are given on Berry's authority, and a few others are supported by references to other English and American records.

1. ——— JENKIN, of Lyminge (Lyminge), co. Kent, was probably descended from ——— Jenkin, perhaps of Hythe, co. Kent. A common origin may reasonably be claimed for the Jenkin families of Coldred, Folkestone, Lyminge, and Lympe in that county.

Children:

2. i. HENRY, b. probably at Lyminge about 1525.
- ii. JEAN, living 26 Jan. 1574/5; m. before that date ——— PARRETT.
- iii. ELIZABETH, m. (1) at Coldred, 5 Aug. 1566, THOMAS HARRISON; probably m. (2) HENRY RACHELL and was living 24 Jan. 1613/14. She had children by her first husband who were living 26 Jan. 1574/5.

2. HENRY† JENKEN (———), of Coldred, co. Kent, yeoman, the testator of 1574/5, born, probably at Lyminge, co. Kent, about 1525, died between 26 Jan. 1574/5 and 9 July 1575. He married MARGARET (or MARGER) ———, the testatrix of 1607, whose will was proved 14 Mar. 1609/10.

He was churchwarden at Lyminge in 1563, and held lands in Publications of the Harleian Society*, vol. 42, pp. 84-85. Berry's pedigree of the Folkestone family includes a number of later generations not given in the Visitation pedigree, but both pedigrees begin with a William Jenkin who is said to be descended from the Jenkins of the North. Another brief pedigree of a part of the Folkestone family is found in The Visitation of Kent, 1663-1668 (Publications of the Harleian Society, vol. 51, p. 88). The Visitation pedigrees, as far as they extend, are in substantial agreement with Berry's pedigree.

Children: * 1. Thomas, of Minster, co. Kent, bapt. at St. Peter's in Thanet, co. Kent, 16 Nov. 1628; living 21 Feb. 1666/7, being mentioned in the will of his brother, Daniel Jenkin; he was appointed overseer of the will of his aunt, Margaret Lane, in the codicil dated 3 Sept. 1662. 2. Daniel, bapt. at St. John's in Thanet 7 Nov. 1630; bur. there 14 Nov. 1630. 3. Sarah, bapt. at St. John's in Thanet 31 Mar. 1633; living 16 Jan. 1661/2, when she is mentioned in the will of her aunt, Margaret Lane; m. before 1661/2 John Barett, living 16 Jan. 1661/2; three children living 16 Jan. 1661/2, viz., Sarah, eldest daughter, John, and Mary. 4. Daniel, of St. John's in Thanet, mariner, the testator of 1666/7, named 16 Jan. 1661/2 as executor of the will of his aunt, Margaret Lane; d. prior to 5 Aug. 1667, when his widow, Elizabeth, was appointed administratrix with the will annexed of the estate of Margaret Lane, of which her deceased husband, Daniel Jenkins, had been executor; two sons, Thomas and Daniel, mentioned in his will.
- vi. PRISCILLA, bapt. at St. John's in Thanet 14 May 1604; d. prior to 16 Jan. 1661/2, when her three children are mentioned in the will of their aunt, Margaret Lane; m. at St. John's in Thanet, 10 Oct. 1622, WILLIAM HAMMOND. Children: 1. Daniel, living 21 Feb. 1666/7, when he is mentioned in the will of Daniel Jenkin (5, v, 4). 2. Priscilla, bapt. at St. John's in Thanet 21 Dec. 1628; living 21 Feb. 1666/7; m. before that date William Ansell. 3. Mary, bapt. at St. John's in Thanet 11 Dec. 1631; bur. there 14 Dec. 1631. 4. Jane, bapt. at St. John's in Thanet 25 Aug. 1633; living 21 Feb. 1666/7; m. before that date Nicholas Fairman. 5. William, bapt. at St. John's in Thanet 24 Jan. 1635/6; probably d. before 16 Jan. 1661/2.
- vii. MARTHA, bapt. at St. John's in Thanet 23 Nov. 1605; d. at Reading, Mass., 14 Nov. 1680; m. at St. John's in Thanet, 28 Jan. 1627/8, WILLIAM EATON of Staple, co. Kent, husbandman, born probably about 1607, d. at Reading, Mass., 13 May 1673. The names of William Eaton, his wife Martha, his children John, Martha, and Albe, and his servant Jonas Eaton appear on a list, certified 9 June 1637, of persons who have taken passage from the town and port of Sandwich, co. Kent, for the American plantations.† William Eaton settled first at Watertown, Mass., where Daniel and Mary, his two youngest children, were born, and where he and Jonas Eaton were owners of land. Later, however, they both removed to Reading, and were admitted freeman 18 May 1653. In Mar. 1658 William Eaton gave his age as about 54 (as read by Perley Derby), and in Nov. 1667 as about 60 (Essex Court Files). In 1669 he deposed that he was then aged about 62, and in 1670 Jonas Eaton gave his age as 52. (Middlesex Court Files.) Presumably these two men were closely related, although no mention of relationship between them has yet been found.‡ The will of William Eaton, dated 26 Sept. 1672 and proved 11 June 1673, mentions wife Martha, eldest son John and his children, son Daniel and his children, daughter Mary, and sons-in-law Thomas Brown and Francis Moore. Children: 1. Mary, bapt. at St. John's in Thanet 28 Dec. 1628; bur. at Staple 20 July 1634. 2. Martha, bapt. at Staple 19 Sept. 1630; came to New England with her parents; m. (1) Richard Oldham of Cambridge, Mass.; m. (2) at Cambridge, 7 Oct. 1656, Thomas Browne, who was admitted to the church in Cambridge

*Which wife was the mother of each child is not clear.

†This list is printed in REGISTER, vol. 75, pp. 221-223.

‡It is not improbable that John Eaton, who was living at Watertown when William Eaton came there to settle and who afterwards removed to Dedham, and Jonas Eaton were brothers of William. John was born probably about 1600, William about 1607, and Jonas about 1618. No proof of this relationship has as yet been discovered, and the parentage and family connections of William Eaton remain unknown.

He married at St. Peter's in Thanet, co. Kent, 24 Feb. 1616/17 (by licence issued 11 Feb. 1616/17, being then of St. John's in Thanet (Margate), co. Kent), MARY SACKETT of St. Peter's in Thanet, perhaps the Mary Jenkin, widow, who was bur. at Minster 28 — 1659. Her will, dated 14 Oct. 1656, when she was of Birchington in Thanet, was proved 20 Sept. 1661. She was sister of Rev. John Sackett, rector of Great Mongeham, co. Kent, and of William Sackett, and was probably daughter of John Sackett of St. Peter's in Thanet, yeoman.

William Jenkin was a citizen of Canterbury in 1614 and later removed to Minster. In 1630 he was summoned to appear before the King's commissioners to compound for not having received knighthood at the King's coronation, although he had £40 in land or rent.‡

HALE-DOWSETT

Contributed by WALTER GOODWIN DAVIS, B.A., LL.B., of Portland, Me.

THAT the maiden name of Thomasine, wife of Thomas¹ Hale of Newbury, Mass., was Dowsett has been proved by Mr. William Prescott Greenlaw in the REGISTER, vol. 64, page 186, where the record of the marriage, 11 December 1632, of Thomas Hall of Watton apud Stone, co. Hertford, glover, and Thomazin Dowsett, maiden, is given from the printed "Registers of St. Helen's, Bishopsgate, London." In the "Calendar of Marriage Licences issued by the Faculty Office," 1632-1714, the licence of Thomas Hale and Thomasine Dowsett is found to have been issued 10 December 1632 (The Index Library, vol. 33, page 3). The following abstracts of probate records, taken from the Withington Papers, now in the possession of the Essex Institute, Salem, Mass., show that Thomasine Dowsett was a daughter of Gabriel Doucet of Harlow, co. Essex, and give information about his family.

The Will of GABRIEL DOUCET of Harlow, co. Essex, miller, dated 14 December —. To my son Thomas my copyhold tenement near Harlow Market, in the tenure of George Chapman. To my daughter Tomazen Douset £90. To my son Thomas three roods of freehold land in Harlow March, on condition that he pay to my daughter Tomazen £10 more. To my grandson Thomas Freeman 10s. at the age of five years. To my daughter Joan 5s.

*Cf. the marriage licence, supra, p. 68. For descendants of William and Elizabeth Jenkin see Berry, op. cit., p. 485.

†All information about the children of Thomas Jenkin by his second wife, except the records of baptism, has been taken from Berry, op. cit., p. 485.

‡For descendants of Rev. Henry and Susannah (Hatfield) Jenkin see Berry, op. cit., p. 485.

§Cf. also Hasted's History of Kent, second edition, vol. 10, p. 234.

||20 May 1640, according to the Consistory transcript of the parish registers of Minster in Thanet; but the licence was issued 18 May 1639, and the marriage was probably solemnized in the same year.

Administration on the estate of MERCIE DOWSETT of Watton-at-Stone [co. Herts], widow, was granted to her daughter Thomasine, wife of Thomas Hale, and bond was filed 25 June 1635. (Archdeaconry of Huntingdon for Herts [Somerset House], Act Book 5, fo. 8.)

The Dowsett family was well established in western Essex and eastern Herts in the seventeenth century. Unfortunately the parish registers of Harlow were stolen from the church in 1814, and that source of further information in regard to the ancestry of Thomasine (Dowsett) Hale is therefore cut off.

CROSS WITH CAUTION — With school beginning in the next few weeks, motorists need to exercise caution as hundreds of students are transported to and from school by bus, car, bicycles or walking. Officer Shelia Jenkins with the Pascagoula Police Department signals for the traffic to stop as children make their way across the street to school. Pictured are: Brittany Birch, Heather Wood, Heath Morris, Tara Trehern and Tiffany Cunningham.

Ebenezer (Need) Jenkins
1840 to 1894

The information included in this package includes the deposition given by Ebenezer (Need) on March 7, 1874, in East Pascagoula relating to the claim of Severen Boudreau, whose cattle were taken from Petit Bois (Pettibo) Island, during the blockade of the Western Gulf coastal waters, during the Civil War. The total testimony and related documents were 104 handwritten pages. This testimony gave me a new perspective on the nature of slavery in Jackson County, at least for Creoles and some Mulattoes, during the Pre-Civil War era.

Some Creoles/Mulattoes were not slaves before the War. Others who were often lived apart from their owners. The summary statement by the Special Commissioner, Major Gillette, sheds some light on the conditions along the coast. Testimony in this claim was given by whites and blacks, ex-slave holders and ex-slaves, mostly in favor of Severen's claim. The result of the inquiry was that congress approved a settlement of more than $1,400.00 in 1876. Severen's original claim was for more than $6,600.00

At the same time Miguel Pol, a white, was totally denied his claim of more than $18,000.00 I have not been able to get the actual claim from the National Archives.

The 1850 census data (Slave Schedule), lists the slaves owned by John McInnis by age, sex, and color b(black) or m(mulatto). John McInnis only had three mulatto slaves listed. First a 28 years old female mulatto, a 10 year old male mulatto and an 8 year old female mulatto.

I believe it is most feasible to assume that the 10 year old male is EBENEZER, the 8 year old, his SISTER and the 28 year old female, his MOTHER. Adding substance to this assumption is the fact that in all testimony given by Ebenezer or Solomon Gregory, each consistently list 1862 as the year they enlisted in the U.S. Navy (though 1863 is the actual, year as entered in the Calhouns logs and muster roll).

Ebenezer is listed as 22 years old when he enlisted (he thought it was 1862!). This was 12 years after the 1850 Slave Schedule at which time he was 10 years old. The age of 10 would be correct since slave owners kept accurate records of slave births and sales. I have not come across any other record of the 28 yr old mother (?) or the 8 yr old sister(?).

The partial school list of parents and students in the Moss Point School in 1892 (to 1893) list Needham Jenkins as being the father of; Felice, age 17, Maggie, age 5, Lorenzo, age 9 and AMELIA, age 14.

On the other side of this page is the census data from 1910 which lists AMELIA Buchanan, the wife of Lloyd and mother of Cornelius, Pricilla, Nelsena and the foster mother of Ida White, as being a 32 year old mulatto. This census was 18 years after the AMELIA who entered school as the daughter of Needham, age 14.

Adding further to this assumption is the fact that Solomon Gregory enrolled his two children, SOLOMON GREGORY (Jr.?) and ELIZA GREGORY at the same time. It's obvious they went together since they are consecutive on the roster. Solomon listed his wife's name, rather than the mother's actual name, on the roster.

The other list reveals that CLARA JENKINS, the one original daughter who none of the remaining elder Jenkins progeny ever heard of, did attend school. She was also on the roster when she was 13 years of age (I misplaced the copy of the document).

Ebenezer Jenkins

- 33 years old
- During war I was Ebenezer McInnis
- I was slave to John McInnis up to 1862, when on 28th Dec. I ran off in a skiff from Pascagoula to Horn Island to join the U.S. fleet. I shipped out to the gunboat Calhoun under Capt. Biglow

- I took oath to U.S. and spent time in MS Sound
- Was on gunboat J.P. Jackson when we were instructed to go to PB and get cattle for food
- I am American of mixed blood, but not a creole
- Known SB all his life and knew he owned cattle on PB island

- SB has good reputation as old creole citizen
- SB is loyal to Union
- SB employed a man to look after cattle and his name was Mon Pierre “Big Louis” He’s dead now but he lived on PB Island
- I was discharged from service in 1865 by Commodore Palmer

⊙ RUNAWAY SLAVE

CIVIL WAR SURPRISE !

Ebenezer McInnis (McKinnis), a.k.a. Ebenezer Jenkins, a.k.a. Need (Neid) Jenkins had always been a curiosity to me. Maybe the names Ebenezer and Need convey the image of a tragic person who, through a variety of circumstances, was a perpetual victim.

Born the slave son of his slave holding biological father, and finally forced to change his last name under duress, never able to read or write, and according to cousin Ivon, his last days on earth were spent sitting and not being able to lie down because of some unexplained illness. His children and grand children whom I knew did not seem to know much about him. His wife Margaret outlived him by 26 years or so. Did she discuss him and important events in his life with the children and grand children? Obviously not ver much, or not in much detail.

Cousin Ivon and other grandchildren were aware that Margaret received a pension after his death, but no one knew that he had been in the military. Cousin Alphonse, who is 87 years old, could shed no light on Need, in fact he told me that he was rarely discussed in his presence.

The pension document led to the most exciting and unexpected fact about Need. The fact that he clandestinely, along with at least one other slave, Solomon Gregory, managed to make it out to the USS Calhoun, a Union vessel in the Mississippi Sound, and join the Union Forces!

That act of defiance must have been exhilarating for someone who never had any real say about decisions affecting his life or well being. I had an immense feeling of pride that he made the decision to fight for the cause of freedom.

In their minds Solomon and Ebenezer had to know that if they were caught before they made it out to the Calhoun, or if they were captured by Confederate troops, that the punishment would be absolute. Yes, I can only imagine that this was as great an act of courage and optimism as either had ever experienced in their lifetimes.

I have the intention of visiting the National Archives in Washington D.C. and reading the ship's logs of the U.S.S. Calhoun and U.S.S. New London. A glimpse of Union Naval activity along the Gulf Coast from New Orleans to Mobile generally involved Union blockades of ports such as Mobile and New Orleans and probably other locations such as Gulfport and Pascagoula. Ship Island off of Biloxi was occupied by the Union. Horn Island and some of the other barrier islands along the coast were important in the naval activities of the area.

What was going on with Need and Solomon after the war ended? No one in Solomon's family was aware of what they did during the war. Was this out of fear of retribution from ex-confederates? Did Margaret know about his services and never shared it with the children. Was it considered important by either? Was his name change due as much to his Union service as to anything else? The answers to these questions will never be known since neither could write or read. Reading the captains logs from the Calhoun and New London would reveal the ship's activities and some semblance of what life was like for at least two "Landsmen" (those who know little or nothing of the sea). They may even be direct references or mention of assignments or duties relating to their day-to-day activities.

I would like to learn more from whatever sources are available.

Jenkins Family History
Greene and Jackson Co. Mississippi

As a child there were many summer evenings when my mother-Yvonne, my aunt-Margretta, my grandmother-Florita, my great uncle-Arthur("Uncle Boots"), my great aunt Carmelia ("Ain Pie") and family friends would sit on the front porch of the house built right after the Civil War (See the attached deeds), and listen to stories about "Need", Edward Malcolm Smith and other family members.

The only ones present who personally remembered "Need" were "Uncle Boots" and "Ain Pie". "Uncle Boots" did not, to my recollection, discuss "Need" very much or I was too young to remember. "Ain Pie" lived much longer but she had mental lapses and was frequently not in tune with reality. Most of the stories were handed down and probably embellished, or incomplete, over the passage of time.

Certain central facts seem to stand the test of time and have indeed been verified through official documentation.

"Need" was born a slave and was the property and son of either Neil or John McInnis. The deed and other documents confirm the McInnis name. The fact is however that slaves generally bore the family name of the owner.

In "Need's" circumstance, the oral history states that after his father's death his two legitimate half-brothers began a fear campaign to force him to change his name. This would seem to confirm the paternity legend, since there are many black McInnis in Green and Jackson counties who bear that name to this day.

A casual glance at my only know picture of "Need" surely indicates that he had more caucasian than negroid features, so his mother must also have been mulatto. The story goes that he went to the court house to change his name and he looked bewildered and out of place since he had never been in a court house before.

A white man asked him what was wrong and he said he had to change his name. This man said, "so what's the problem?" "Need" said he did not know, "what name to use." The man said, "well use Jenkins if you want to, that's my name." He did!

The public library in Pascagoula, Miss has a number of local documents and books on the history of the Mississippi Gulf Coast. One book on the history of Jackson County states that a fire in 1875 destroyed the county court house and all county documents prior to 1875. That means that mostly census and other federal documents must be relied on to gather data on blacks, slave and free, before 1875. The 1830 U.S. census reported the following free blacks in Jackson County none were identified by name, only by age and gender:

Under 10 Yrs		10 to 24 yrs		24 to 36 yrs		36 to 55 yrs		55 to 100 yrs
M.	F.	M.	F.	M.	F.	M.	F.	M.	F.
11	9	9	14	4	9	2	7	0	1

The 1840 census reported no Free Colored in the county!

Much enthusiastic assistance was provided to me by the librarian, a private patron, Mr. Don Quinn, and several other private researchers using the library on that day. With their assistance I was able to make a lot of progress in one visit. I express sincere thanks to the above.

After spending what seemed a very long time examining and finding no reference to either Ebenezer McInnis or Need Jenkins in the 1870 Jackson County census files, I was elated after about 30 minutes to suddenly see the name "Jenkins, Need" before me in the 1880 census. These files are handwritten. Names, ages, etc., made this data seem to be in the present.

In 1880 Need was 45 years of age, married, a laborer, could not read or write, he, his father and mother were born in Mississippi. He would have been born in 1834 or 1835!

His wife Margaret (my great grandmother) was 29 years of age, a housekeeper, could not read or write, was born in Mississippi, father born in Alabama and mother in Mississippi. She would have been born in 1850 or 1851!

The 1880 census lists the following children;

Isabella age 12, in school

Arthur (uncle "Boots") 10 in school

Clara, age 8, in school

Mathilde, age 6 in school

Felicia, age 2 at home

Carmelia ("Ain Pie") 1, at home

The census classified ex-slaves as black or mulatto just as slaves had been counted before the Civil War. The entire family was classified as mulatto!

The neighbors were:

- a. The Lewis Thomas family, black with children and an 8 year old mulatto named Mamie Young living with them.
- b. The Henry Simms family, wife and three children, black.
- c. Lewis Dupont, a carpenter, white.

There was no census data for 1890. While examining the 1900 census frame by frame I came across Carmelia Jenkins ("Ain Pie") who was a boarder with Bella Jones. She was 20 years of age and could not read or write.

Margaret Jenkins was listed as a widow. However, she was now 42 years of age and her birthday was given as 1857! Now both of her parents were born in Mississippi!

The children:

Arthur, 1870, age 30, a foreman, could not read or write

Lorenzo, 1882, age 17, sawmill laborer, could not read or write.

Maggie, 1887, age 12, student, reads & writes.

Florita, 1890, age 10, student, reads & writes.

All the siblings were related to Margaret as brothers and sisters?

Mathilde's nickname was "Tinny", cousin Gracie Cowan was her daughter.

Gracie's children were: Brittina, Mack Jr., Mathilde, Steve, "Skeet", Vivian, Effie and Norma Jean.

Felicia was "Rail", her children were Nelba ("Kitt"), and Ethel ("Buck") Lorenzo, "Uncle Dibbs", son Alphonse ("Tee Nichie").

Of the great aunts and uncles I only remember knowing Arthur ("Uncle Boots"), and Carmelia ("Ain Pie"). Isabella was the mother of Jim and Jack McInnis and she died shortly (about two months) after Jim was born in Greene County. It is reported that she was badly treated by her husband and contacted pneumonia after Jim's birth. Margaret brought him back to Moss Point and raised him.

"Uncle Boots" walked with a cane, he was famous for his "Ghost & Gin" stories. It seems that ghosts would regularly follow him home from "up on the corner" (the tavern). According to Uncle Boots the only way to get them to stop following him was to dig a small hole in the dirt on the side of the road, take the gin bottle from his back pocket, pour some into the hole walk away a short distance, and watch as, this huge ghost magically shrank as the gin in the hole was drunk, until the ghost completely disappeared as the last drop of gin disappeared.

Other ghost stories involved buried money. It seems older people would bury money in cans or jars for safe keeping. If this money belonged to someone who died and left it buried, the person finding the burial place had to take certain precautions, forgotten by me, when digging for the money or the ghost protecting it would cause it to sink further as the digging proceeded.

A "hoot owl" hooting under certain circumstances meant that someone you knew well was going to die within a short time.

My grandfather Edward Malcolm Smith, was a prosperous banana plantation owner who also owned a small fleet of fishing vessels before he drowned off the Coast of California in the 191__'s.

I finally reestablished communications with the family on Grand Cayman Island when I was in college in the 1950's. In the late 1960's I went with my family to visit, "Molly," as Edward Malcolm Smith was called by everyone on the Island who knew of him, did not own a banana plantation and there never was a fishing fleet. However his sister was 88 years old and living in the house he had had build, after he married Florita, for them to live in. The house was on 3 to 5 acres of land.

"Ain Pie" lived in the old family home ever since I can remember. The story was that she had been quite ambitious. she owned a small store and bought a home a few blocks away before she got married.

The man she married, Wiley Connerly, it turns out, was stealing money from the business until he finally found a way to take her life savings from the bank. The amount was reported to be $600.00, quite a large amount at that time (a fancy couch from the Sears catalogue costs from $5.00 to 12.00 during that period). "Ain Pie" eventually suffered a mental break down. I remember that she got gradually worse as time progressed. After she died I remember her body being waked in the house laid out on a board on the bed in the middle bedroom. The night before the funeral the body was placed in a casket and displayed in the living room. I have fond memories of "Ain Pie" since she spent much more time with me when she had her normal periods.

I especially remember her garden down near the spring and the small cyprus swamp at the bottom of the property. She grew the largest pumpkins and made the best pumpkin pie I have tasted to this day. She also grew okra, which I detested at the time.

Florita died in 1946 or 1947 when I was 10 or 11 years of age. She had a disease which no one at the time would admit. Cancer was somehow thought of as a social or demeaning disease.

"Nan Nan" (Margretta) never married and had no children. She was my mother's (Yvonne/Evon) only living sibling. she always bought special things for me but she always worked at jobs that by today's standards are considered menial. I remember she took one vacation to Hot Springs Arkansas. "Nan Nan" lived alone in the old family place for most of the time after Florita died. She went out of her way to keep things as they had been, including the documents contained in this family sketch. Unfortunately many of the documents which revealed much about the family circumstances were lost or misplaced after Margretta's death.

I remember going through the shoe box in the late 1950's which contained the deeds (which had been torn at the fold lines and sewn together with thread), the letters from Edward Smith to Florita and many other receipts and memorabilia which shed some light on the hardships suffered in a matriarchal family.

In the 1920's the property tax bills were not paid on at least three occasions before tax liens were placed on the property. Each time the property was redeemed by Florita. The striking thing was that the tax bills were always less than $4.00!

One interesting paper from 1921 was an IOU to Jim McInnis for $161.00 (as close as I can recall) for the burial of Margaret Jenkins, Jim's grandmother. When we purchased the property more than fifty years later, this money had to be repaid before Jim consented to sign the sale documents as an heir.

The house and the property are located at what is now Payne and Welch Streets in Moss Point. The frame house, with a front porch the width of the house, had three bedrooms a living room, a dining room, an outhouse and kitchen. Later a screened in back porch and an inside bath room were added. Water was brought up from the spring down the hill at the bottom of the property until I was about 10 years of age. Later a hand operated pump was installed behind the house. The front bedroom had a trap door in the floor which was covered by an area rug. I always wondered what the purpose of that trap door had originally been. The house had been moved from its original location about 1935 or 1936, so a tunnel or something else may have provided a haven from right riders. No living family member was ever able to tell me about the purpose of this trap door.

The property contained numerous fruit trees and sub-tropical plants. On the Payne Street side, near the road, was an edible pear tree and a large mulberry tree, which still partially stands (I started cutting it down because children at the Charlotte Heights elementary school across the street might hurt themselves climbing for the berries). Numerous pecan trees were scattered about. My favorite was the white scuppernong vine and trellis. Another pear tree was behind the house and these were called "sand" pears. These were usually cooked and canned and used as a jam or preserve.

Possums could often be seen at night in the persimmon tree. a number of fig trees caused me much discomfort as the underside of the leaves causes the skin to really itch when picking figs. The figs were cooked, canned and used as a jam or preserve. A grape vine provided the fruit for wine making, which Florita made yearly. Huckleberries were another source for wine.

The cherry trees had small tart berries and the birds usually feasted on these. I vaguely remember pomegranates and the large persimmons. A citrus tree did not bear fruit but the leaves were used to make very good tea. Florita also made root beer and aged it in large (about 20 gallon) crock jars.

A large garden provided pole beans, sometimes peanuts and other fruits and vegetables (this was in addition to "Ain Pie's" garden).

The spring flowed into a larger ditch which emptied into the backwaters of the Escatawpa River. This constant moisture created and maintained a mini swamp which contained cyprus trees, vines, ferns, and spanish moss.

The stream from the spring contained minnows, crayfish, a type of large salamander which lived in the mud of the stream, and large cotton mouth moccasins. Raccoons, opossums and other small animals were present. We caught a few alligator snapping turtles in the stream, which were very good when cooked.

A very large Sleeping Locust tree was in the front yard. At sunset the leaves and pink flowers would fold and close until sun rise. There was an arched trellis with a climbing rose bush covering it completely. In the trellis was a swing. I recall "Uncle Boots" falling out of this swing when I was very small.

The property is quite different from the description in the original deed in that the construction of Welch and Payne Streets ran at an angle on the southwestern (intersection of Payne & Welch) end. This resulted in about a third of the property being subtracted with one triangular section across Welch still a part of the original. A triangular section across Payne on the west is now part of another tract.

After purchasing the property the house was rented for a time and then became vacant. The taxes, with the house included, were appreciably more. I had a friend tear down the house and he used the virgin lumber on some of his own projects. Hopefully one day soon I will build my retirement house on the land.

DOCUMENTS AND LETTERS

The birth certificate, item 8, is an example of how inaccuracies in recording information about births and other vital statistics have been a source of problems for people later in life.

This birth certificate was for Yvonne Lettuce Smith. The first error is the name VIVIAN LETTICE SMITH!

The next error is the mothers name Florita Jenkins spelled FLORETAR JINKINS!

Next is the birth place of the father, West Bay, Grand Cayman, B.W.I., WEST BAY, G. COMPOR, JERMCA! Next is the father's occupation steward, sailor, STEWARD, SALOR!

The mid-wife would fill in the information on the document and it would be registered as factual.

When my mother Yvonne retired she had to show proof of birth for social security and retirement benefits. When she sent away to Jackson, Mississippi, she had to go to a lot of trouble to prove that she was the same person listed on this certificate.

I assume that Ms. Bardwell delivered one or more children in a short time and in the confusion she used the wrong first name, since VIVIAN does not remotely sound like EVON (later YVONNE).

The misspelled words were probably due to limited schooling.

The transcription of the letters and deeds were typed as written, with grammar, punctuation, and spelling uncorrected. The typed versions were simply to make readable copies of faded and discolored originals.

The affidavits and pension application were received on June 8, 1992 per my request to the National Archives Trust Fund Board. On first hurried examination I felt somewhat disappointed that these^R was not a neat form with filled in blanks. Listing date of birth, place of birth, mother's name, grandmother, and etc.

However, after reading the rather parallel statements which were made to prove certain things necessary to be declared eligible for a pension, many details and insights came through.

One was my assumption that Ebenezer and Solomon Gregory enlisted together. Solomon's affidavit not only affirmed that but his account of Horn Island as the place the went aboard, the condition of the Calhoun, and the capture of the cutter crewmen should be verifiable as it was intended to prove he had indeed been aboard with Ebenezer.

The account of Samuel Brown more than 30 years after the end of slavery indicates how totally the system took hold of the slave's mindset as to being property. I personally did not previously use the term "slave owner" in this entire packet, believing that no one can own anyone. The former slaves use of terms such as "masters" and "owners" illustrates that their world was much different from ours.

The other glaring thing that strikes me is how names and dates cannot be relied upon as solid leads. The other striking thing was that the two black witnesses who could write their own affidavits did so with better spelling and punctuation than many of the Justices and Notaries.

The town in Greene county where Ebenezer was said to be born is either Salam or Saldw or salaw. I doubt if it still exists.

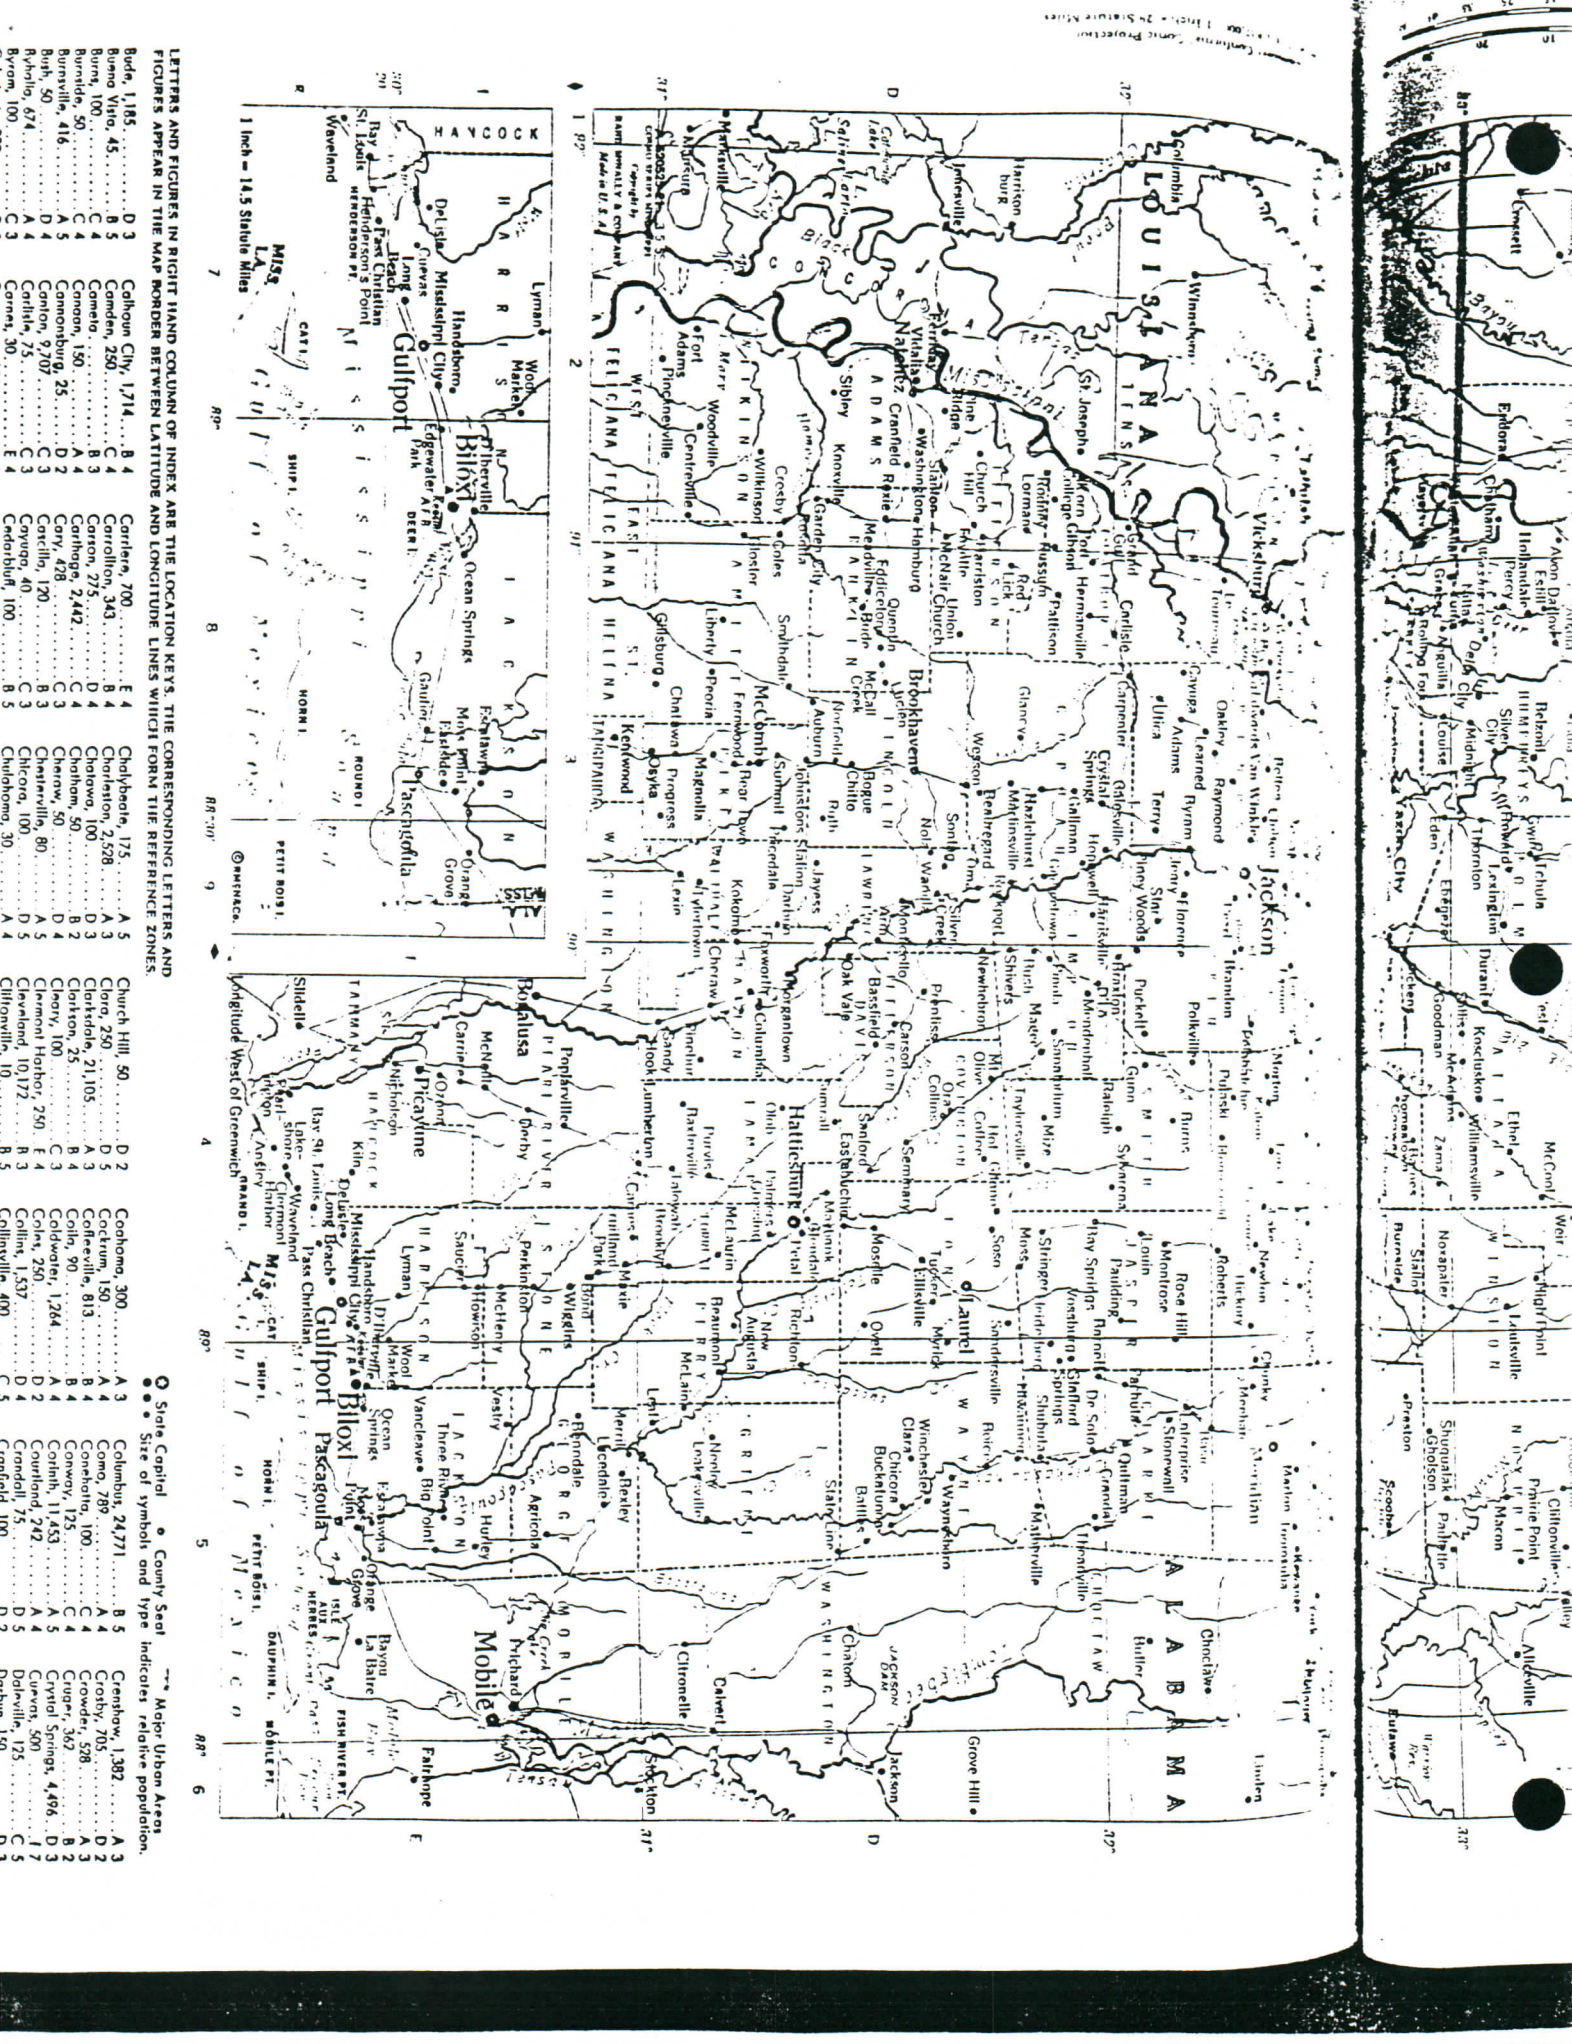

The other item which becomes murkier with each document is the question of Ebenezer's age. According to the 1880 U.S. Census his age would have been 62 years in 1897. But according to Solomon they were about the same age and he would have been born in 1839 rather than the years 1835 indicated by the census.

The other point about age and origin of birth in the document from the Military Reference Branch confirms my initial assertion that the officer recording the information at the time either did not ask and assumed that since Pascagoula was the closest town he was from there, he also assumed he was in Alabama territorial waters, not being real familiar with the area, and probably guessed at his ages, unless he deliberately lied.

The handwriting and literacy of Ortancia Glaude makes me suspect that she was schooled at an early age, some years before the end of slavery and during the period when teaching blacks to read and write was generally forbidden!

The transcripts once again were made to facilitate the reading of these documents, not to make corrections.

James E. Planer

My aunt Florita was in New Orleans Louisiana when I was born, immediately arriving home. she asked my mother her sister, Maggie, if she would name me Edith Gertrude. A name of which I am very proud. I do not know where the nickname "Little H" came from but my aunt never called me by that name.

My mother was a beautiful woman, having long black wavy hair that I liked to comb and brush. It was very unfortunate that she died at age forty two, of a heart condition.

Uncle "Boots" was the only uncle living uncle that I knew. We were fond of each other, my mother would leave us with him and his friend, when she went to mobile to visit our father who was a chef on a tug boat that docked there. My brother "Son" and I had a lot of fun with him. He was getting some kind of pension, after getting his money he would come by and bring a large box of white crackers and have me make cracker pudding. I don't remember how old I was but I did the best that I could.

"Ain Pie" had a nice home, she was so clean that you could eat off of her scrubbed kitchen floor. I liked to visit her because she gave me some special goodies. After becoming ill and going in to seclusion, she always remembered "little H." She would ask me to order out of the Walter Field Catalogue for her. The money that she got from her vegetable garden at the "Old Home" (Jenkins home) would pay for her purchases.

My remembrance of aunt "Tinny" was the times that she would come by our house and bring a pan of food from the kitchen where she worked.

My only remembrance of my grandmother Margaret was, She and Florita would pass by our house, going to the bank in an old Model T Ford, driven by one of her friends. My sister Ivon, her daughter Irene, and I were standing by her grave after the funnel.

"The Old Home" is where Aunt Florita spend all of her life. It was beautifully decorated, my aunt liked antique furniture. All of the bodies of the dead of the family were waked there. My brother "Son" and I liked visiting but did not like to spend the night because of all of the "haint" or ghost stories that were told.

I am looking forward to the day that a new house will be built on the property. It won't be the same but a part of history will remain.

NAVY WIDOW

PENSION APPLICATION

April 23, 1896

This document indicates the application to receive a pension was filed on april 23, 1896. The attorney handling the case was Harry Planter of Leavenworth Kansas.

the notes to the right of the official form indicate the reasons that Margaret needed so many affidavits from friends, neighbors and officials. "May 18, 1996 states Atty Planter more data. Alleged service not shown by records

"August 5, 1997. Navy and refit services ret ??? for services on Calhoun in 64."
ASL

Feb 1, 1899. refers to deaths, births, living sailors correct name, birth place and a reference to Solomon Gregory.

March 1, 1899. Again requests births, living, death of sailors and to furnish records of same.

"May 8, 1899. Atty Planter for copy of clients records of birth of children."
ASL

The first reaction to the fact that it took over five years for Margaret to finally receive the pension she applied for on April 23, 1896 and received on May 13, 1901 (Application date at the bottom of the NAVY WIDOW form and the bottom right of the BUREAU OF PENSIONS form), is that the same old bureaucratic red tape existed then as it does now!

However when we consider the circumstances of Need's name change, no marriage or birth records, Margaret's variances of age, some of the inconsistencies in some of the affidavits, the fact that he was listed as being 22 years of age, on December 29, 1863 and possibly other inconsistencies unknown to us today makes the long delay understandable to some extent.

The fact that so many local officials assisted her in qualifying for a pension from someone who rebelled against their convenient lifestyles surprises me somewhat. The fact that John McInnis assisted in purchasing the property in 1867 immediately after the war becomes surprising.

The mystery concerning "Works and Waterworks" is finally cleared up. They were not twins and was commonly believed but were born about two years apart. Their names were ABBANEZA and WATERWORTH!

Yet Margaret did get the pension retroactive to April, 1896 after much assistance from former slaves and former "masters".

AFFIDAVIT # 2 1

May 19, 1897

I enlisted steamboat Calhune (Calhoun) a third class gun boat, about January 1864 at Horn Island, Miss in Miss Sound, as landsman and served about 18 months. The vessel was sent to New Orleans for repairs after inspection was condemed. The crew was transferred to the gun board New London and was sent to the Gulf of Mexico. On first trip down we lost a cutter officers and crew was captured by confidrats (confederates). Ebeneyer B. Jenkins enlisted at the same place and was discharged at the same time I was. He served as landsman also. His master was named John McInnis. He answered Role call by name of Ebeniza (Ebenezer) McInnis. He was a bright malata (Mulatto) dark hair and eyes, and would be about 58 years old now. I knew Ebeneza (sic) from childhood he was a sawyer (saw mill worker) before the war. Ebeneza (sic) went by the name of Ebeneza B. Jenkins after he come home he resided at Moss Point every since until his death. The captain of the Calhune (sic) was named Betalo and New London capt. Gideon Nilles as well as I can remember.

July 11, 1898

I have known Ebenezer B. Jenkins from the time he was born. He went by the name of McGines because it was our masters name. We both belong to the same man. Ebenezer B. Jenkins died at Moss Point Miss. June 27, 1894. I was present at the marriage of Margaret and Ebenezer B. Jenkins. They were married by Rev. Butts on March 8, 1866. Margaret was not married previous to the marriage to Jenkins. Jenkins was not married before he married Margaret. I knew them both from childhood. Margaret and Jenkins lived together until the date of his death. I know Margaret B. Jenkins has not married since the death of Ebenezer B. Jenkins. Margaret resides on her home ??? place where Ebenezer died. The place is valued at about two hundred dollars, our master name was John McGines. We all went by that name, when slaves. Moss Point has been my place of residence all my life. Ebenezer B. Jenkins had never been in the army or navy to my knowledge before Dec. 29, 1863 or subsequent to March 21, 1865. I know all the family and lived in the neighborhood since the war. He always worked in the saw mill until some years past he was working on a steam boat.

History on John McInnis

August 28th, 1916.

Mr. J. F. McInnis,
Minden, La.,

Dear Sir:-

I am in receipt of your letter of 23rd inst., and will gladly give your sketch of what I know of the McInnis family in this Country.

My Great-Grand father Daniel McInnis moved from Scotland to Richmond County North Carolina about the year 1800, from N.C. to Green County Mississippi about 1812. He had two brothers John and Neal, I never knew what became of John my impression is he died, Daniel and Neal McInnis remained in Green County the balance of their lives. My Grand Father also lived in Green County all of his life. My father Lauchlin McInnis was born and raised in Green County Mississippi, where he married and moved to Moss Point, Miss., Jackson County. The County joining on the south where I was born and raised.

There are a great many McInnis's in Green County, several different families that claim no kin. It is said to be a fact that there was a jury trial in Green County once in which there were Eleven John McInnis's on the JURY. I am quite a young man, only find these facts out from older members of the Family.

I have two lady Cousins that are getting up a family tree, they have your address and are going to write you, and no doubt they can give you more information. If you ~~will~~ write John D. McInnis Meridian, Miss., I think he would be able to give a good history. He has been a very prominent man in the State, was R. R. Commissioner for a number of years and has canvassed the State and knows' most every one. He is about 75 years old very genial, and I think might know something that would interest you, and would be glad to write you. There are several families in Brookhaven, Miss., Hattiesburg, Miss., and Leakesville, Miss.,

My father name was Lauchlin McInnis and his father Alexander McInnis, there are ten children in our family a division of five girls and five boys.

If at any time you are down on the coast we would be glad to have a visit from you.

Yours truly.

Three brothers, Donald, John and Niell McInnis came from Scotland to New York, thence to North Carolina and settled in Richmond County, North Carolina. After a time John went back to New York.

Donald was married on February 27th, 1801 to Miss Anne McLeod (also Scotch) They were parents of eleven (11) children. Later they came by covered wagons to Mississippi and first settled about six miles below where Leaf now stands on the west side of Pascagoula River. Then moved just across the River where Merrill now is located. Later bought out Gresham one and one-half miles above on East side of Chickasawhay River, but still lived in the home where Merrill now stands.

Niell married Effie McKaskill, a niece of Anne McLeod McInnis, wife of Donald McInnis. She had three (3) brothers, John McLeod, Kenneth McLeod and Alexander McLeod, and one sister Isabel who married David McDonald.

All older members of Donald McInnis' family were buried in the family lot in Green County. Several years after the death of Alexander McInnis, his wife Mrs. Margaret Elizabeth McInnis, her son Nott McInnis and daughter Louisa Isabel McInnis moved to Moss Point, Mississippi, where all other members of her family lived,

also Scotch

Donald McInnis, born March 25th, 1773 in Scotland and Anne McLeod, born in October 1777, were married February 27, 1801. They had eleven (11) children:
